

Destination By Hyatt Announces The Opening of New Cheyenne Mountain Resort in Colorado Springs

The latest addition to the Hyatt's portfolio, the resort is set to redefine luxury and hospitality in the heart of Colorado Springs

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colorado - Destination By Hyatt, a renowned name in the hospitality industry, is thrilled to announce the opening of its new Cheyenne Mountain Resort in Colorado Springs. This latest addition to their extensive portfolio is expected to redefine luxury and hospitality in this picturesque part of the United States.

Destination By Hyatt's New Cheyenne Mountain Resort is nestled in the heart of Colorado Springs, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape. The new resort promises a unique blend of comfort, luxury and top-notch services to guests.

Colorado Springs has long been a favored destination for travelers seeking a blend of city life and outdoor adventure. With the opening of the new Cheyenne Mountain Resort, Destination By Hyatt is pleased to offer a new luxurious retreat for visitors.

The resort features a range of amenities including elegantly designed rooms and suites, a state-of-the-art fitness center, a spa and wellness center, and multiple dining options. In addition, the resort also offers a host of outdoor activities, making it the perfect destination for both relaxation and adventure.

Destination By Hyatt's New Cheyenne Mountain Resort is not just about luxury and comfort. It also aims to educate consumers about the importance of sustainable tourism. The resort is built with several eco-friendly measures in place, aligning with Hyatt's commitment to sustainability and responsible tourism.

This new resort also signifies the growing relevance of the United States in the global hospitality industry. According to the American Hotel & Lodging Association, the U.S. hotel industry generated $1.1 trillion in economic output in 2018, supporting 8.3 million jobs. With its new resort, Destination By Hyatt further strengthens its position in this dynamic industry.

Destination By Hyatt, a leading name in the hospitality industry, is committed to offering unique, immersive experiences in some of the most beautiful locations across the United States. With a focus on authenticity, personalized services, and responsible tourism, Destination By Hyatt aims to redefine the concept of luxury hospitality. For more information, please visit <https://www.hyatt.com/destination-by-hyatt/en-US>.

Contact Information:

For more information, press only:

[Contact Name]

email@hyatt.com

For more information on Destination By Hyatt's New Cheyenne Mountain Resort:

<https://www.hyatt.com/destination-by-hyatt/en-US>